Gift of education

Delhi Police head constable Thaan Singh 34, teaches street children in the Red Fort area. He says he has been helping these children since 2016. He says he has helped many of these kids to get admission in government and MCD schools. Singh uses the premises of a now abandoned Sai temple in the Red Fort parking area to teach nearly 50 children every day. India will celebrate Teacher's Day, commemorating the birthday of former president of India Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, on Monday.
