New Delhi, 8 March

The Delhi Police observed International Women's Day 2026 holding a series of awareness programmes, outreach initiatives, and community engagement activities across all its districts and units across the national capital. Several events were organized in the run-up to, and on the occasion of the day to promote women's safety awareness, and community participation to encourage women empowerment.

The key activities included self-defence training sessions, lectures on "Good Touch & Bad Touch", interaction sessions on cyber and social media awareness, health check-up camps, women's scooty rally, felicitation programmes, and women safety, along with legal awareness programmes. Talking of the North- West district, a self-defence training session was organized at GGS School, Adarsh Nagar to empower students with essential safety skills.

The students were taught simple and effective techniques to protect themselves and respond confidently in challenging situations. The session focused on building confidence, awareness, and personal safety, encouraging students to remain alert and fearless.

In the Outer district, a programme was organized in collaboration with Pahal NGO at Mahila Park, Sector-18, Rohini to promote women empowerment and awareness about safety and legal rights.
