PRESS RELEASE

DELHI POLICE

DWARKA DISTRICT

Dated: - 27.11.2026.

'SURAKSHA '2026': DWARKA DISTRICT POLICE PROMOTES WOMEN'S SAFETY, CYBER SECURITY AND EMPOWERMENT AMONG UNIVERSITY STUDENTS.

- Sh. VIKAS MEENA, IPS, ADDL. DCP/DWARKA, ATTENDED THE PROGRAMME AS THE CHIEF GUEST.
- STUDENTS SENSITISED ABOUT WOMEN'S SAFETY, CYBER SECURITY, PERSONAL SECURITY AND SUBSTANCE ABUSED.
- IMPORTANT EMERGENCY HELPLINE NUMBERS AND WOMEN SAFETY SUPPORT SERVICES SHARED WITH STUDENTS.

➢ BRIEF FACTS:-

Under the directions of Sh. Kushal Pal Singh, IPS, DCP/Dwarka District, and guidance of Sh. Vikas Meena, IPS, Addl. DCP/Dwarka, Dwarka District Police organised an awareness programme titled 'SURAKSHA '2026' at Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU), Dwarka, on 27.11.2026. Sh. Vikas Meena, IPS, Addl. DCP/Dwarka, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The programme was organised by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Cell, GGSIPU, in association with the Directorate of Students' Welfare and Delhi Police, Dwarka District, at the Seminar Hall, E-Block, GGSIPU. It focused on three important themes, namely Women Safety, Cyber Security and Substance Abuse, under the inspiring message "Because Safety is a Right, Not a Privilege."

➢ ACTIVE PARTICIPATION BY DWARKA DISTRICT POLICE TEAM:-

During the programme, SI Rashmi, SI Tej Singh, and Team Medicom, Dwarka District, actively participated and interacted with students, sensitising them about various aspects of women's safety, personal security, cybercrime prevention, online frauds, cyber threats and safe internet practices. Special emphasis was laid on remaining alert, speaking up against harassment and reporting incidents of crime without hesitation.

➢ AWARENESS ABOUT WOMEN SAFETY HELPLINE NUMBERS:-

Students were apprised of important emergency helpline numbers and support services related to women's safety, including 112 (Emergency Response Support System), 181 (Women Helpline) and 1091 (Women Police Helpline). They were informed about the appropriate use of these services and encouraged to seek immediate police assistance whenever required.

- PROMOTING AWARENESS AND EMPOWERMENT:-

Students were encouraged to understand their rights, adopt preventive safety measures and actively contribute towards creating a safe and secure environment for women. The importance of collective responsibility, mutual support and awareness in preventing crimes against women was also highlighted.

Sh. Vikas Meena, IPS, Addl. DCP/Dwarka, emphasised the importance of awareness, vigilance and collective efforts in ensuring women's safety and security. He encouraged students to become responsible citizens and actively participated in spreading awareness about women's safety and cyber security.

The programme witnessed active participation from students and provided an important platform for interaction between Delhi Police and the student community, further strengthening police-public relations.

Through such initiatives, Dwarka District Police remains committed to promoting women's safety, empowering citizens through awareness and building a safer and more secure society.

(KUSHAL PAL SINGH) IPS,
DY. COMMISSIONER OF POLICE,
DWARKA DISTRICT, DELHI.