SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

MESSAGE

Greetings! Date: 03.09.2024

The month of August holds a special significance for every Indian, marking the day on the 15th of this month in 1947 when we attained independence from British rule. Over the past 78 years, India has made remarkable progress, and the field of policing has evolved to meet the challenges of an ever-changing crime landscape. To address these challenges effectively, it is crucial that we stay informed and continuously enhance our skills and knowledge.

This August, we celebrated Independence Day, Janmashtami, and Raksha Bandhan. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to every member of the Delhi Police for their unwavering commitment to ensuring safety during these celebrations through diligent policing, security measures, and traffic management.

I am also pleased to congratulate the 18 officers of the Delhi Police who have been honoured with the President's Police Medal for Distinguished and Meritorious Services this year. Your exceptional dedication brings great pride to the Delhi Police and serves as an inspiration to us all.

I commend our teams for their efforts in tackling white-collar crimes, including online investment fraud, deceptive "work-from-home" schemes, and fraudulent customer care services. Our vigilance in investigating cryptocurrency-related crimes and hawala transactions plays a crucial role in maintaining the integrity of our financial system.

Furthermore, our successes in dismantling networks involved in illegal arms trade, illicit liquor supply, drug trafficking, illegal e-cigarette sales, and vehicle theft demonstrate our commitment to protecting lives and property. Our focus on community policing and engagement has significantly strengthened public trust, enhancing the safety and security of Delhi.

As we look ahead, I encourage all of you to continue serving with integrity and dedication. Let us remain steadfast in our mission to keep Delhi safe and secure, always upholding the values and ideals of the Delhi Police.

Thank you !
