Satish Golchha
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings!

The month of August holds a profound significance for all of us as Indians. On 15th August 1947, our nation attained independence, and since then, in the 78 years of our journey, India has recorded a tremendous progress in every sphere. Policing too has transformed over the decades, constantly adapting to the evolving nature of crime and the changing needs of society.

This month, we celebrated Independence Day, Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi and Raksha Bandhan. Delhi Police officers and personnel worked hard in maintaining law and order, ensuring public safety and managing large gatherings with seamless traffic and security arrangements during the Independence Day celebrations and other festivities, which deserve high commendation.

On the Policing front, our teams have worked tenaciously in combating and taking stringent action against gangsters, fake visa rackets, fictitious casting racket, swindlers, human traffickers; solving murder cases and reuniting missing elderly and children with their families with swiftness and agility.

Furthermore, our sustained efforts in strengthening our public outreach initiatives have played a pivotal role in building trust and confidence between Delhi Police and citizens. We observed the World Senior Citizen Day by honouring and engaging them, thereby enhancing their trust and confidence in Delhi Police. Our cyber and road safety awareness campaigns have also helped sensitize citizens in making Delhi a safe and secure city.

The Har Ghar Tiranga campaign by different units and districts of Delhi Police reached diverse sections of society, kindling patriotic fervour and strengthening citizens' emotional bond with the Tricolour. Our social and print media campaigns, urging citizens to be the eyes and ears of Delhi Police and spreading awareness to discourage the use of Chinese Manjha, drew significant attention. It is equally heartening that the Delhi Police WhatsApp channel has now reached a followership of 50,000 citizens.

As we look ahead, I urge each one of you to continue upholding the core values of integrity and dedication and engage yourselves in continuous learning, innovation, and upgradation of professional skills.

The courtesy and skill training programme is a unique initiative in this direction to imbue a sense of service among Delhi Police officers and personnel.

Let us remain united in our mission of serving the citizens of Delhi with empathy and courage, ensuring peace and security for all.

Jai Hind!

Hon'ble/C.P Delhi
