SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

MESSAGE

Greetings! Date: 29.02.2024

The 77th Delhi Police raising day celebrations began with the parade at NPL Parade Ground, Kingsway Camp, on 16th February which notably had all women marching contingents, a historic moment reflecting our commitment to women empowerment and gender equality in every sphere of policing endeavours. Sh. Nityanand Rai, Minister of State for Home, graced the occasion and took the salute of the parade. He commended the Delhi Police for their efforts in safeguarding the city and successfully managing various national and international meetings, summits, protests, and processions with meticulous planning and finesse. On the occasion, our exceptional officers and personnel were honoured with police medals for their meritorious services and I take this opportunity to extend my congratulations to each of them for their dedicated service.

As part of Delhi Police Week-2024 celebrations, different units and districts of Delhi Police conducted educational and awareness programs aimed at sensitizing citizens to various crimes and violations falling under the ambit of active policing such as drug menace, crimes against women, cybercrime, traffic violations, etc. Our proactive measures extended to the prevention of criminal activities such as drug trafficking, with engaging nukkar nataks at DU colleges promoting the message of "say no to drugs" among our youth and “Samvad” – an interactive session by senior police officers with college students. The inauguration of all-women police posts at Khan Market and Kamla Market by Hon’ble LG Delhi marked a significant step towards women safety.

The Annual Sports Meet, organized by the Police Families Welfare Society, offered a platform for camaraderie and healthy competition among police families. It served as an avenue for showcasing hidden sports talents and provided an opportunity for individuals to display their capabilities.

We take pride in reaching the milestone of 1 million followers on Twitter, enhancing our outreach and engagement with the community. Coinciding with this achievement, in the month of February, we also observed the International Safer Internet Day, reiterating our commitment in promoting digital literacy and online safety.

In addition to significant feats in apprehending criminals and curbing criminal activities, the diligent efforts of our officers and personnel have resulted in the successful reunification of three missing children with their families and the rescue of an elderly woman from a building engulfed by fire.

All our achievements stand as a testament to the professionalism, and unwavering commitment to serve and protect the people of Delhi. As we continue our journey towards a safer and more secure city, we are grateful for the trust and support of our citizens.

Thank you !
