MESSAGE

SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings!

Greetings!

India's rich diversity is beautifully reflected in the variety of festivals celebrated across the nation by different religious communities and in various regions. September was no exception, with significant festivals like Ganesh Chaturthi, Onam, and Id-e-Milad, each carrying its own cultural importance and message.

On September 5th, we celebrated Teachers' Day marking the birth anniversary of Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, India's first Vice President, second President, and a distinguished philosopher, educator and scholar. This day is a reminder to imbibe the true spirit of learning and teaching. In life, we often play dual roles—sometimes as students, and at other times as teachers. It is essential that we embrace both roles with sincerity as per the demands of the situation. Both roles are essential for personal and collective growth.

Delhi Police celebrated Hindi Diwas on September 14, commemorating the day in 1949 when the Constituent Assembly adopted Hindi as India's official language. Delhi Police reaffirms its commitment to promoting the use of Hindi to enhance communication and better engage with the public.

During this month, Delhi Police took significant strides in cracking down on gangsters involved in serious crimes such as murder, shootings, mobile phone snatching, drug trafficking, illegal arms dealing, and cybercrimes. The courage and diligence of our officers continue to ensure the safety of our community.

Delhi Police is committed in supporting the health and morale of its force and family members. In September, a motivational talk by Dr. Pawan Agrawal, known for his work with the Mumbai Dabbawalas, energized our staff. Additionally, a Free Ayurveda Awareness Medical Camp was organized for family members, promoting holistic health and wellness.

In an act of heroism, 42 lives were saved from a burning factory due to the swift and courageous response of our officers, whose prompt actions averted a major tragedy. Our personnel play a vital role in safeguarding the public, often at great personal risk, as exemplified by the tragic loss of brave heart Ct. Sandeep from PS Nangloi, who sacrificed his life in the line of duty. His sacrifice will never be forgotten, and his courage will continue to inspire us all.

Thank You !
