SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings! Date: 31.01.2024

The month of January was marked by a myriad of religious festivals, national celebrations, and the commemoration of birth and death anniversaries of great leaders. These occasions served as poignant reminders of our cultural diversity, national heritage, and the contributions of remarkable individuals to our collective history.

The Republic Day celebrations held special significance, serving as a platform to showcase our national pride, and honour the valour of our martyrs. The diamond jubilee parade at Kartavya Path was a testament to our rich culture, diversity, and military strength. It underscored the theme of women empowerment, as the parade was led by accomplished women from across the nation. It was a moment of immense pride for the Delhi Police, as we made history with the participation of an all-women contingent and band at Kartavya Path on Republic Day.

Our all-women marching contingent garnered accolades by being adjudged the best marching contingent among the CAPF and other auxiliary forces, in the judge's choice category. This recognition not only celebrates the exceptional dedication and discipline of our women officers but also symbolizes the progressive strides we are making towards gender equality and inclusivity in our society.

All the Districts and Units of the Delhi Police worked tirelessly and in close coordination with each other to ensure elaborate safety, security, and traffic arrangements on the occasion of Republic Day celebrations and Beating Retreat ceremony. The dedication and professionalism exhibited by every member of the Delhi Police reflect their unwavering commitment to public safety and the preservation of law and order.

We got an opportunity to reflect on the ideals, teachings and contributions to our society of our great leaders, as we paid tributes to great leaders – Swami Vivekananda, Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, Maharana Pratap and Guru Gobind Singh on the occasion of their birth anniversaries; and Lal Bahadur Shastri and Mahatma Gandhi on the occasion of their death anniversaries.

The entire month was imbued with national celebrations that reaffirmed our commitment to the values enshrined in our constitution. These celebrations served as powerful reminders of our shared aspirations for a democratic, inclusive, and prosperous nation, where every individual is empowered to realize their full potential.

Thank you !
