Satish Golchha

Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings!

The month of February holds special significance to every member of the Delhi Police family as we celebrate the Raising Day of Delhi Police on 16th February every year. This year marked the 79th anniversary of the establishment of Delhi Police and we witnessed a grand Raising Day Parade at New Police Lines Parade Ground, Kingsway Camp, which was graced by Shri Amit Shah, Hon'ble Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Government of India.

On this occasion, Hon'ble Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation inaugurated the first phase of the Safe City Project, including the modern Integrated Command, Control, Communication and Computer Centre (C4I) at the Police Headquarters. He also laid the e-foundation stone for a new state-of-the-art headquarters of the Special Cell of Delhi Police, which would be equipped with an Indoor Firing Range, War Room, Cyber Lab, Training Hall and several other modern facilities. The facility is envisioned to serve as a model Special Cell headquarters for police forces across the country. In addition, the foundation stones for ten other new projects of Delhi Police were also laid.

During Delhi Police Week, a wide range of activities were organised to showcase the rich legacy, achievements and citizen-centric initiatives of Delhi Police, further strengthening the bond between the police and the public. The week witnessed several thematic programmes and special events, including illumination of police buildings across the capital city, performances by the Delhi Police Band at prominent public locations and march-pasts at various venues by the Delhi Police marching contingent.

Other highlights of the Week included public awareness campaigns through Jansampark Vahan, the Delhi Gully Olympics (Rural Sports Initiative), podcasts on exigent issues to spread awareness, a Mega Exhibition at Central Park, Connaught Place, showcasing the history, modernization and initiatives of Delhi Police, as well as a Musical Evening and Kavi Sammelan.

During the same period, our officers and men also ensured comprehensive security and traffic management arrangements for the India AI Impact Summit held at Bharat Mandapam, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi, which witnessed the participation of global leaders, policymakers and technology experts. Elaborate security deployment, advanced surveillance systems and carefully planned traffic regulations were put in place to ensure the smooth conduct of the summit while facilitating the movement of the public across the city.

Let us all continue to uphold and carry forward this resolve and commitment to serve the citizens of Delhi with dedication, professionalism and compassion.

Jai Hind!

Glimpses of Delhi Police Week 2026 celebrations (16th Feb to 22nd Feb)

Seven Days, Seven Commitments: Strengthening Service, Security and Community Partnership

In 2026, Delhi Police Week was celebrated under the theme “सात दिन, सात संकल्प” (Seven Days, Seven Commitments), highlighting the core values of modern policing - Service, Security, Dedication, Courage, Compassion, Vigilance and Cooperation. Various outreach programmes, awareness initiatives and community engagement activities were organised across districts and units, strengthening the bond between Delhi Police and the citizens it serves. Throughout the week, several other initiatives such as Delhi Police Band performances, illumination of police buildings, awareness campaigns through Jan Sampark vahans, sports events and community programmes added vibrancy to the celebrations.

Blood Donations Camps Across the Districts and Units of Delhi Police

Day 1 - Seva

A Commitment to Selfless Public Service

The celebrations commenced with the theme “Seva - Nishkaam Janseva ka Sankalp,” symbolizing the spirit of selfless service that defines the ethos of Delhi Police.

To mark the occasion, Blood Donation Camps were organised across various districts and police units, with enthusiastic participation from officers and staff.

These camps reflected the humanitarian side of the police force, highlighting its commitment to serving society beyond law enforcement duties.

Day 2 - Suraksha

Building Trust through Safety and Awareness

On this day, self-defence workshops were conducted across districts to equip women and young girls with practical skills for personal safety and confidence. Additionally, students' visits to police stations were organized to provide young citizens with insights into the functioning of law enforcement. Through interaction with police officers and exposure to police infrastructure, students gained a better understanding of policing, helping bridge the gap between the police and the community.

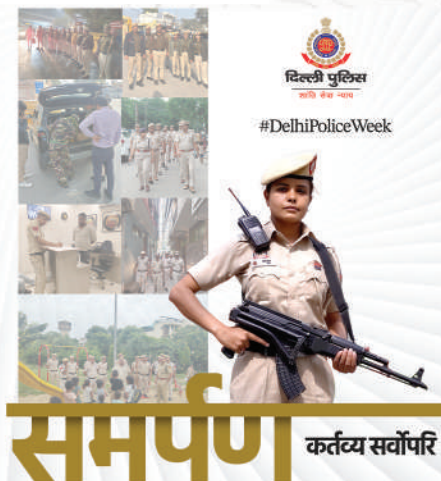

Self Defence Workshops Across the Districts and Units of Delhi Police

Day 3 - Samarpan

Duty Above All

The third day highlighted the theme “Samarpan”, underscoring the unwavering dedication of police personnel towards their duties and responsibilities. On this occasion, various districts organized special programmes for senior citizens, reaffirming Delhi Police's commitment to their safety and welfare.

During these programmes, police officers interacted with elderly residents, addressed their concerns related to safety and emergency assistance, and encouraged them to stay connected with local police.

Meeting with Senior Citizens & Elderly people by the field functionaries

Day 4 - Sahas

Courage in the Face of Every Challenge

On the fourth day of Delhi Police Week, themed “Sahas,” community interaction programmes and meetings were held across districts to address safety concerns and encourage public participation. Sports initiatives, including Gully Olympics and rural sports in JJ clusters, featured games like Kabaddi, Volleyball, Kho-Kho and Tug of War, promoting youth engagement and strengthening police-public relations.

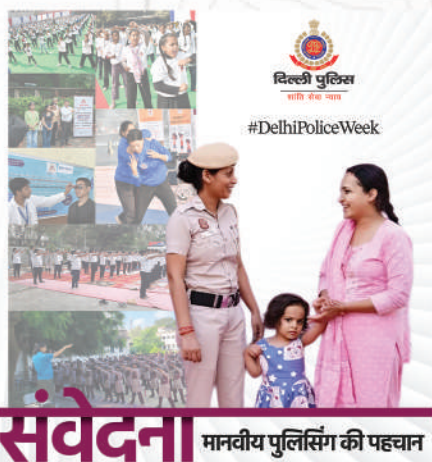

Meeting with RWA's & MWA's

Day 5 - Samvedana

The Human Face of Policing

The fifth day was observed under the theme “Samvedana”, highlighting the humane and empathetic approach of Delhi Police towards community policing. Under this initiative, Eyes & Ears / Prahari meetings were organised across districts to strengthen community vigilance.

These meetings brought together residents, RWAs and volunteers who assist the police in maintaining safety in their respective areas. Awareness films were also screened during these sessions to sensitise citizens about crime prevention and encourage greater cooperation with the police.

Meeting with Praharis

Day 6 - Satarkta

Vigilance and Preparedness

The sixth day focused on “Satarkta”, reinforcing the importance of vigilance and preparedness in ensuring public safety. Sports competitions and fitness activities were organised across districts to promote teamwork, discipline and physical fitness among police personnel.

Such initiatives highlighted the importance of maintaining operational readiness while also encouraging a healthy and motivated police force. Awareness programmes were also conducted to educate citizens about safety measures and the importance of remaining alert against emerging security challenges.

Organising Sports Meet

Day 7 - Sahyog

Strengthening Police- Public Partnership

The final day of Delhi Police Week emphasised “Sahyog”, highlighting the importance of cooperation between the police and the public in maintaining a safe and secure city. Various public outreach programmes and community meetings were organised across districts and police stations.

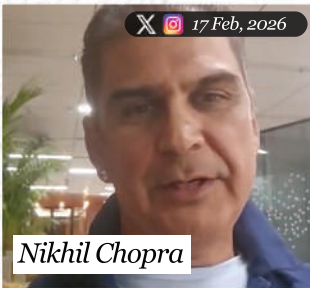

These interactions with police personnel provided a platform for citizens to discuss local concerns, safety measures and policing initiatives.

MAJOR ACTIONS AND DETECTIONS

Notorious Criminal Sanjay @ Darinda and Associate Arrested after Brief Exchange of Fire

In view of rising incidents of snatching, burglary, and theft in Sub-Division Vasant Vihar, a special team of PS R.K. Puram was constituted under the supervision of ACP Babbar Bhan and led by SHO Inspector Ravinder Kumar Tyagi. On the intervening night of 05–06 February 2026, at about 3:15 AM, acting on secret information, the team intercepted Sanjay @ Darinda and his associate Jaggal @ Sonu near Africa Avenue Road. When asked to surrender, the accused opened fire, with bullets hitting the bulletproof jackets of Inspector Tyagi and SI Satyender Dahiya. The police retaliated in self-defence, injuring Sanjay, and apprehending both accused. One 7.65 mm pistol with live and fired cartridges was recovered from Sanjay, while a country-made pistol along with fired cartridges and burglary tools were recovered from Sonu. FIR No. 31/26 dated 06.02.2026 has been registered under relevant provisions of BNS and the Arms Act at PS R.K. Puram. Sanjay is a notorious criminal involved in over 100 cases, while Sonu is linked to around 10 cases. Both had resumed criminal activities after Sanjay's release from jail in September 2025

LeT Module Busted; Eight Operatives Arrested in a Major Counter-Terror Operation

In a major counter-terror operation, Delhi Police Special Cell dismantled a Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) module and arrested eight highly radicalised operatives following a complaint received at PS Supreme Court Metro on 08.02.2026 from CISF regarding pro-Pak and pro-terror posters at Janpath Metro Station. Acting on the inputs, Special Cell teams led by Insp. Sunil Rajain and Insp. Dheeraj, under the supervision of ACP Rahul Vikram and DCP Amit Kaushik, conducted coordinated raids across Delhi, Kolkata (West Bengal), and Tiruppur (Tamil Nadu). Out of the eight accused, seven are Bangladeshi nationals who had illegally entered India and procured fake Indian identity documents. They were recruited and handled by a Kashmiri LeT operative based in Bangladesh.

The module had carried out reconnaissance of vital installations in India. The module head, Shabir Ahmad Lone of Srinagar (currently based in Bangladesh), is a previously convicted terrorist arrested in a 2007 Special Cell case involving recovery of arms and ammunition, including an AK-47 rifle and grenades. Searches led to the recovery of pro-terror posters, 10 mobile phones containing incriminating material, 25 credit/debit cards, 5 POS machines, and Bangladeshi passports and identity documents. The timely action by Delhi Police has averted potential terror strikes and dealt a significant blow to cross-border terror networks.

PCR Team Rescues Guards, Apprehends a Thief in Okhla Industrial Area

In a swift response, PCR staff of South-East Zone rescued two confined security guards and apprehended a thief during a late-night incident in Okhla Industrial Area Phase-I, New Delhi.

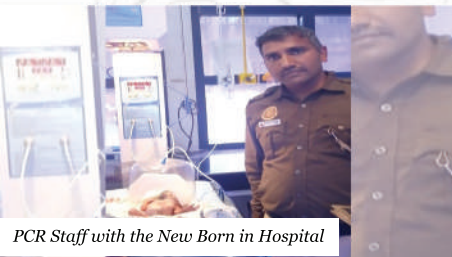

Police Team with the Thief

On 19.02.2026, at around 3:38 AM, MPV received a PCR call reporting a burglary in progress at a factory. The team reached the spot within five minutes and found the main gate locked from inside, with two guards confined in a room. As the siren was sounded, the accused attempted to escape via the rooftop.

Displaying prompt action and courage, Ct. Shiv Kumar climbed over the barbed-wire boundary wall and entered the premises, while SI Rajesh took a strategic position and called for reinforcement. Soon, MPV K-57A also reached the spot. After sustained efforts, one accused was apprehended, while his accomplice managed to flee. The PCR team then opened the gate and safely rescued the guards. A case vide FIR No. 93/2026 under relevant sections has been registered at PS Okhla Industrial Area.

PCR staff of Outer North Zone rescued an abandoned new-born baby

On 22/02/2026, PCR staff of Outer North Zone received a call at about 12:46 AM regarding a new-born baby in dustbin. The staff of MPV immediately reached the spot and finding the baby lying in garbage pitcher, immediately took the baby, without wasting any time or waiting for the Ambulance, to SRHC Hospital, Narela where she was handed over to the duty staff in conscious condition for further treatment.

Serial Poisoning Case Solved, Notorious Tantrik Arrested

Outer District Police has successfully solved a sensational triple murder case involving a self-styled tantrik who murdered three persons as part of a pre-planned conspiracy for financial gain. The accused, Kamruddin @ Baba, a resident of Firozabad (U.P.), was operating fraudulent tantric centres in Loni and Firozabad. He lured victims by promising “Dhanvarsha (sudden financial gain)” through rituals. After gaining their trust, he poisoned them by mixing toxic substances in laddoos and robbed them of cash and valuables. On 08.02.2026, a PCR call was received at PS Paschim Vihar East regarding three unconscious persons inside a car. Police teams rushed to the spot and found an elderly man, a middle-aged man, and a woman. All were shifted to Sanjay Gandhi Memorial Hospital, where they were declared brought dead. The deceased were identified as Randhir (76), R/o Baprola, Shiv Naresh (42), property dealer, R/o Nagli Dairy, Laxmi (40), R/o Jahangirpuri. Family members suspected foul play, ruling out suicide. During the course of investigation, technical analysis revealed that all victims were in contact with the accused and had visited Loni a day prior and on the day of the incident. Evidence confirmed that Kamruddin accompanied them in the car. During sustained interrogation, the accused confessed that he convinced the victims to arrange ₹2 lakh, liquor, and cold drinks for a ritual. He administered poison-laced laddoos during the journey, rendering them unconscious, and fled with cash. The accused is a habitual offender, previously involved in heinous cases including murder and kidnapping.

Operation “CyHawk 3.0”

Delhi Police successfully conducted Operation CyHawk 3.0, a large-scale, intelligence-led drive against cyber fraud networks and their financial and digital ecosystems. Carried out on 05–06 February 2026, the operation is the third such major action in four months, reflecting the sustained commitment of Delhi Police to curb cyber-enabled financial crimes. Simultaneous operations were conducted across Delhi and more than 10 States—from Assam and Arunachal Pradesh in the East to Rajasthan and Gujarat in the West, and from Punjab and Haryana in the North to Keralam in the South—with participation of over 5,000 police personnel. Several major cases were unearthed during the operation. These included recovery of ₹22 lakh in cash, foreign currency, and over 1.8 kg of gold and silver jewellery in a case involving a fake RTO app fraud. In another case, an investment fraud network routing over ₹9.28 crore through mule accounts was dismantled, leading to the seizure of SIM cards, mobile phones, cheque books, ATM cards, and digital payment devices. In the third case, accused persons were apprehended from Assam and Tawang, with recovery of gold, multiple devices, and freezing of cryptocurrency worth approximately ₹30 lakh.

Overall, the operation delivered significant results:

6,552

individuals were rounded up for questioning

955

accused were arrested
or bound down

Legal action was initiated against

2,563 persons

299

new FIRs were registered and 262 old cases were linked

3,180 National Cyber Crime Reporting Portal complaints were connected, involving a defrauded amount of ₹627 crore. Operation CyHawk 3.0 highlights the scale and complexity of cyber fraud networks and demonstrates the effectiveness of coordinated, intelligence-driven policing in dismantling them.

PFWS Mission Olympics: Nurturing Champions of Tomorrow

The Closing Ceremony of the Annual Sports Meet 2026, organised under the banner “Police Families Welfare Society Mission Olympics,” was held on 7 February 2026 at the New Police Lines Sports Ground, marking the successful conclusion of a three-day sporting event.

The ceremony was graced by Sh. Satish Golchha as the Chief Guest and Sh. Yogeshwar Dutt, Olympic Bronze Medalist and Padma Shri awardee, as the Special Guest. Smt. Rachna Golchha, President, PFWS, along with representatives from the Delhi Olympic Association, Oil and Natural Gas Corporation, and Indian Oil Corporation, were also present.

Trophies and medals were presented to the winners of events held in Athletics, Badminton, Shooting, Wrestling, Basketball, Football, Cricket, and Kabaddi. PFWS athletes delivered an impressive performance, winning 82 of the 132 medals on offer, including 32 gold, 26 silver, and 24 bronze medals, along with several team trophies.

Addressing the gathering, Shri Satish Golchha congratulated the winners and highlighted the importance of strengthening sports infrastructure and coaching to nurture athletes for higher levels of competition. Smt. Rachna Golchha appreciated the athletes’ achievements and acknowledged the support of partner organisations, while Shri Yogeshwar Dutt inspired the players by sharing experiences from his sporting journey and encouraged them to remain disciplined and focused.
