SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings!

The month of May began with a crisis that tested the nation's resolve and spirit of nationalism. In response to escalating tensions with the neighbouring state and a terror attack, India launched Operation Sindoor. We salute our brave soldiers for their valour and sacrifice in safeguarding the nation.

June also witnessed the observance of Buddha Purnima and the birth anniversary of Maharana Pratap. Their teachings and ideals of compassion, courage, justice, patriotism and unwavering spirit are extremely relevant in today's geo-political scenario and are also guiding principles in the context of policing.

On the operational front, Delhi Police achieved several notable milestones. The Economic Offences Wing arrested a key accused involved in defrauding devotees of Guruji with false investment promises, recovering ₹9 crore swindled in multiple tranches. The New Delhi District Police traced and returned mobile phones lost over the past three years, reinforcing public confidence. A fake NEP certificate racket operating from Azadpur Mandi was dismantled, and three individuals were arrested for printing and selling forged documents.

As part of our public outreach, Delhi Traffic Police is organising a Road Safety Awareness Summer Camp to sensitise school students, while SPUWAC is conducting Self-Defence Camps aimed at empowering girls and women by training them in personal safety techniques.

We take immense pride in the success of the wards of Delhi Police personnel who cracked the UPSC 2024 examinations and the students of Delhi Police Public School who excelled in the CBSE Class X and XII results.

The induction of 4,088 newly recruited personnel, trained in commando operations, unarmed combat, disaster response and IT proficiency, has significantly boosted the strength of our force.

The revamped ZIPNET platform, now equipped with a user-friendly interface, advanced search capabilities and bilingual support, was launched during the month, making public access to information faster and more efficient.

The dedication and dynamism displayed by our officers and personnel continue to inspire confidence and add strength to the force. Let us remain committed to upholding the highest standards of integrity, professionalism and public service.

Jai Hind!
