MESSAGE

SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Date: 31st December, 2022

Greetings!

By the time you will be reading this edition of 'Kissa Khaki Ka', we will have entered 2023. I take this opportunity to extend New Year greetings to you all.

The year 2022 has been a significant one for us. The task of keeping the Capital city safe and secure has always been our top priority. In addition to the traditional methods of policing, we have also laid great emphasis on modernisation.

Elections to Municipal Corporation of Delhi were held peacefully in December 2022. Special arrangements were made for senior citizens and divyangjans at polling stations. Police personnel made all out efforts to ensure that everyone cast their votes without facing any hardship. It was heartening to see such a humane face of women and men in uniform.

As citizens of Delhi also celebrated Christmas and New Year, Police personnel stood on ground and ensured that no law & order issues arose.

We ran a massive online campaign #CyberDatingAlert to sensitize and educate citizens on using dating and matrimonial apps. Two other campaigns #BachpanHaiBachana and #RevelResponsibly were also launched with the aim to create awareness about child safety and festival celebration respectively.

This month has been significant for our Police force as 367 Sub - Inspectors completed their training and joined Delhi Police. We are proud to have them as a part of the family.

I hope that the new year turns out to be peaceful and prosperous for everyone.

Once again, wishing you all a very Happy New Year!

Thank You
