SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Greetings!

As we step into April 2025, I am reminded of the Shakespearean sonnet that beautifully eulogizes the month - "When proud-pied April, dressed in all his trim, Hath put a spirit of youth in everything." These lines vividly capture the essence of April — its vibrant beauty, energy, and spirit — resonating deeply with the ethos of policing.

The month of March witnessed spirited celebrations of Holi, Id-ul-Fitr, and the advent of the Hindu New Year, Chaitra Navratra. Amidst these celebrations, we paid solemn tribute to the brave hearts of our freedom movement — Shaheed Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev, and Rajguru — on their martyrdom day, honouring their supreme sacrifice and unwavering commitment to the nation.

On International Women's Day, we reinforced our commitment to women's safety and empowerment through various initiatives and social media campaigns, thereby instilling a sense of security and confidence among women in our city.

Our teams have achieved remarkable successes in busting organized crime syndicates, dismantling human trafficking networks, and cracking down on international mobile snatching, vehicle theft, and wedding theft gangs. The Anti-Narcotics Task Force (ANTF) continues its relentless pursuit against drug trade in alignment with the government's zero-tolerance policy. Notorious drug traffickers have been apprehended, and a substantial quantity of heroin has been seized, preventing this menace from spreading further in our city. Furthermore, our prompt action in apprehending cybercriminals involved in UPI hijack scams, fraudulent online activities, and other economic offences exemplifies the technological preparedness of Delhi Police.

Public outreach remains the cornerstone of our policing approach. The Talk to DCP App launched in the Outer North District, focus on initiatives like Jansunwai and intensive checks and night patrolling will definitely go a long way in addressing public grievances and maintaining approachable policing.

To enhance our real-time crime scene investigation capabilities, three new mobile forensic vans have been introduced — a significant leap forward in enhancing our crime scene investigation capabilities. It is a matter of immense pride that Delhi Police has been honoured at the FICCI Homeland Security Conference 2025 with the FICCI Smart Policing Special Jury Award for Forensic Innovation. This recognition belongs to every member of the force who works tirelessly to protect and serve the city.

We lost two of our teammates — ASI Satyavir Singh and Constable Nikhil Yadav — in unfortunate incidents. In this hour of grief, the entire Delhi Police family stands in solidarity with their families, offering our deepest condolences and unwavering support.

As we move forward, let us continue to work with renewed vigour, upholding our commitment to safeguarding the city and its citizens.

Jai Hind!
