MESSAGE

Rakesh Asthana,
Commissioner, Delhi Police

Greetings!

The month of May has been very eventful for Delhi Police. Various initiatives were launched to enhance the Police-Public partnership. We are committed to reaching out to people through all the traditional and new age mediums in order to strengthen last-mile-policing with a human touch.

In a constant endeavor to strengthen this bond, we have inaugurated a revamped, fully modern in-house studio, 'Face to Face' and a Social Media Control Room at Police Headquarters. This will enable two-way communication and help in timely dissemination of accurate information. In today's well-networked society, it is important to fight fake news and put across actual facts in the public domain. Social Media is the best medium to spread awareness and to debunk fake news in the shortest time possible.

The MoU Signing & Employment Offer Presentation Ceremony for YUVA 2.0 was also held at Police Headquarters with Shri Anil Baijal, the former Lieutenant Governor of Delhi, as the Chief Guest. We aim to carry forward the YUVA initiative to bring about a change in society.

A special afternoon was also organized with 172 bright students from Jammu and Kashmir who were on Bharat Darshan.

This month, we also introduced 'Thursday Tutorials', a weekly video that highlights Delhi Police's array of services. This initiative is a conscious effort towards spreading awareness on the kind of facilities and assistance we provide.

Our goal is to build an ever-lasting relationship with the citizens of Delhi. With various initiatives and programs, we hope to enhance policing and serve people better with each passing day. I sincerely hope you find this edition of Kissa Khaki Ka insightful, informative and interesting.

HIGHLIGHTS

A Cyber Police Station, a crèche and a Police Public Library were inaugurated in PS Hari Nagar, by Shri Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police. Two Public outreach initiatives- Ashirwaad & Smart Elder were also introduced to impart security awareness & teach senior citizens about Social Media.

THURSDAY TUTORIALS

New initiative on social media to bridge the gap between citizens and police and help people avail all services offered by Delhi Police efficiently.

The first tutorial of the series was on 'Tatpar App'. It can be used to connect with Delhi Police in just 'one touch', and avail 50 other civic amenities.

The Delhi Police website was recently revamped and re-launched. It aims to provide services in a more efficient and user-friendly manner. In this video, an overall tutorial of the website was given, and the range of services offered by the digital portal were briefly discussed.

ROAD SAFETY

In a bid to promote road safety, Delhi Traffic Police conducts various awareness sessions and activities on a daily basis. These are routinely documented on social media, along with other advisories and relatable content.

Road Safety Cell, Delhi Police conducted the third batch of Road Safety Patrol Cadets training in 5 schools for 301 selected students. They were inducted to manage traffic in their respective schools during morning assembly & afternoon dispersal.

Memes are a relatable and humorous tool which can convey any message, with a lasting impact on the audience. For instance, an interactive post about the importance of wearing a seatbelt was done on social media.

ROAD SAFETY

American superhero film, Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness was a much awaited release for a lot of people. A social media post was curated on drinking and driving using that reference.

Met Gala is an annual fundraising event in New York where all celebrity outfits create a buzz. During this year's Met Gala, a social media post was done around the importance of traffic signals using a pop culture icon's outfit reference.

COMMUNITY POLICING
DISTRICT DIARIES

North West

To improve public health and boost police-public relations, North-West District organized a cycling event. The event began at 6 AM with over 70 participants. Refreshments, t-shirts & juices were distributed.
