MESSAGE

SANJAY ARORA
Commissioner of Police, Delhi

Date: 31st August 2022

Greetings

This month, I began my tenure as the Commissioner of Police, Delhi, one of the largest metropolitan police force in the world. The rich legacy of Delhi Police is marked with highest benchmarks of citizen services & sacrifices for ensuring the capital's safety and security. I am confident that together, we will carry forward this spirit.

This month was extra special because of the Independence Day celebrations. Under 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav', preceded by the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign, Delhi Police joined the Nation in celebrating the ethos of tricolour.

We were privileged to host Hon'ble Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah at Police Headquarters. As per his directions, we are committed to fulfill our future action plans in the best interest of the people of Delhi.

This month, Delhi Police crossed over 8 Lac followers on Twitter, which is a great platform for the residents of Delhi to reach out to us. Social media is a critical tool for us to generate awareness about all our initiatives, and involve the public in policing as an equal stakeholder.

We are committed to keep serving the people by upskilling ourselves in all possible areas. In today's era, policing faces varied challenges like terrorism, cyber crime, traffic management, women safety etc at all times. It is our constant endeavour to adapt with the changing times and overcome all challenges.

With consistent efforts, the force is now better trained, and well equipped with technological innovations being welcomed from all possible sources. We are committed to protect the throbbing city of crores of residents.

Jai Hind!
