MESSAGE

Rakesh Asthana,
Commissioner, Delhi Police

Greetings!

I took over as the Commissioner of Police, Delhi on July 28, 2021. My association has been very enriching. This message is a reflection of my journey, all the experiences I had, marking an end to my tenure as Commissioner.

Community Policing and improving the force's relationship with the citizens was my prime focus. Along with this, it was my constant endeavour to modernize and digitize policing which further enhanced accessibility to Police for the people. We established a proactive information sharing cycle through social media. This led to the enhancement of the invaluable triadic relationship among Delhi Police, the media and citizens who are important stakeholders of a thriving democracy.

It was an honour to serve the largest metropolitan force which has witnessed many historical developments in the last 75 years, and has consistently set an example. The rich legacy of Delhi Police is marked with highest citizen services & sacrifices for ensuring the National Capital's safety and security.

Each and every member of the force has contributed in setting this benchmark. All achievements in the last one year are a result of every single Police personnel's contributions and sacrifices.

Leaders come and go, but the institution stays. I hope the new developments in the past year have made policing better and it's just a beginning of what's to come.

I am confident that this legacy will continue to grow. I hang my boots and pass on Delhi Police's baton of bravery and service to the Nation with great satisfaction and pride.

Happy Reading!

HIGHLIGHTS

In a bid to commemorate our past and present as a premier Police force, we celebrated the first Delhi Police 'Commissionerate Day Parade'. Lieutenant Governor of Delhi, Sh. Vinai Kumar Saxena graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

In line with Hon'ble PM's vision, it is our constant endeavour to move towards SMART policing. An Open Innovation Challenge was conducted, a visionary initiative to build a technologically sound future for law enforcement.

67 individuals participated, who were given problem statements, framed focusing on the safety & security of citizens in areas such as predictive policing, ANPR, network jamming, detecting SIM boxes, blank call detection and more.

Technological strides in these areas will aid us to be tech savvy and serve the people better.

In line with Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision, 'Mission Karmayogi Capacity Building Program' was launched in the presence of Chief Guest Sh. Ajay Kumar Bhalla, Union Home Secretary and Sh. Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police to improve Police-public relations. 360 Police personnel will be given soft skills' training, who will further become master trainers for other personnel. This is a structured attempt to make the Police-public interface better.

HIGHLIGHTS

Sh. Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police, inaugurated 'Vrittant' which is a unified data management system for Delhi Police. It eliminates data silos & empowers knowledge by creating a safe repository to store and share content efficiently, without technological limitations.

With 'Vrittant', Delhi Police enjoys hassle free information access, all on one single digital platform.

Delhi Police bid farewell to 1 Special CP and 7 ACsP who retired last month. Sh. Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police felicitated them and acknowledged their contributions to the force.

Delhi Police launched state-of-the-art Integrated Facilitation Booths at various locations all over Delhi. These booths will increase the citizens' access to Police personnel and provide immediate redressal to their grievances.

HIGHLIGHTS

Delhi Police has installed Automatic Number Plate Recognition (ANPR) cameras to reduce cross border crime and increase adherence to traffic rules. This will increase the efficiency to read and identify the number plates of vehicles.

Delhi Police signed an MoU with Ritu Beri Designs, in the presence of Sh. Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police, to design a souvenir and some memorabilia articles pro bono, which will be adopted by the force. This will strengthen the Police-public bond.

In a first of its kind initiative, Delhi Police signed an MoU with Invest India led by Accelerating Growth of New India's Innovations (AGNIi) under the Principal Scientific Adviser to GoI. The collaboration will pave the way for various technological innovations to support & modernise policing by creating in-house innovation hubs.

COMMISSIONERATE DAY PARADE

To mark the Commissionerate Day, Delhi Police held a ceremonial parade at the New Police Lines in Kingsway Camp Ground. Sh. Rakesh Asthana, Commissioner of Police welcomed Lieutenant Governor Sh. Vinai Kumar Saxena, former Commissioners of Delhi Police and other dignitaries present at the parade.

Lieutenant Governor Sh. Vinai Kumar Saxena took the salute as Chief Guest and congratulated the medal winners and participants.

KANWAR YATRA

Delhi Police made special arrangements for a safe and peaceful Kanwar Yatra this year

In order to make the Kanwar Yatra easier and safer this year, Delhi Police created a passenger registration system. The details of all passengers increases safety and coordination.

To create an effective system of coordination between Police across interstate borders during Kanwar Yatra, a meeting was organised.

Along with security arrangements, Delhi Police created a roadmap to keep the traffic smooth. The movement of passengers was actively coordinated and managed by Delhi Traffic Police personnel.

COMMUNITY POLICING
DISTRICT DIARIES

Delhi Police joined the 'Hariyali Utsav' celebrations led by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. A massive plantation drive was organised by Delhi Police at 75 venues, across districts, in the presence of Jt. CsP/Range & other officers.

10,956 saplings of different varieties, including 104 sandalwood trees were planted.

North-West

North West district's unique initiative 'Tejaswini' completed one year, and has led to a significant decline in crimes against women as a result of sustained measures.

Delhi Police lays special emphasis on safety and security of women.

COMMUNITY POLICING
